“Why God Comforts Us”

“But if we are in trouble, it is for your good. “... It is so you will be saved from the punishment of sin. If God comforts us, it is for your good also. You too will be given strength not to give up when you have the same kind of trouble we have. 7

Our hope for you is the same all the time. We know you are sharing our troubles. And so, you will share the comfort we receive.”

I can faintly remember a story about a little boy named Jason who watched his little brother’s Christening Service. On the way home, Jason sobbed all the way in the back seat of the family car.

His father asked him three times what was wrong, and finally, the boy replied, 'That preacher said he wanted us to be brought up in a Christian home growing up in the faith, and I wanted to stay with you guys.

What am I saying, sometimes, when we are preoccupied with an inner sorrow it normal to shy away from crowds or individuals, but what we are really doing is isolating ourselves from the One (God), who can bring us comfort?

Always remember that God’s comfort and healing comes when we are being meek and not shy, when we are being submissive and not proud; comfort and healing comes through prayer, faithfulness, and endurance.

When storms
come your way, just remember you know the Master of the wind, when sickness finds you, remind yourself you know the Great Physician, when your heart
gets broken, just say I know the Potter. It doesn't matter what we face or go through.
Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. He is everything
we need. Amen.
